

Care about kids and families? Let your voice be heard, join the Virginia Parent Council!

The Virginia Parent Council (VPC) has been created to ensure that there is a parent voice in planning and implementing family services throughout the Commonwealth. The goal of the VPC is to have representation all over Virginia!

Commitments:

- Members will serve a three year term
- Participate in Council conference calls scheduled every month
- Volunteer for committees (optional but encouraged)

To apply, please contact Julie Rivnak-McAdam at jmcadam@familiesforwardva.org or by phone at (804) 359-6166 ext. 311

Criteria for Applicants:

- Received services from a family service agency for at least one year
- Have interest in organizational leadership
- Members will be selected based on their local and regional leadership abilities and their potential to become effective statewide parent advocates

This program is supported by the Virginia Department of Social Services with funds from contract #FAM-15-059-15
